

Planning Notice to Parents and Carers – Monday 20th February – Thursday 30th March 2017

Welcome back everyone after the half term, we hope you all enjoyed the break, we have a very busy half term coming up, with a performance planned for the end of term.

This year's themes for our "Carnival of Culture" is European Countries. We will be performing the Carnival of Culture on Friday 31st March 2017, THERE WILL BE NO SESSIONS THIS DAY JUST THE PERFORMANCE, more information about times and what to wear will follow later in the term.

Week 1 Poland 20th - 24th February

We will be colouring in the flag of Poland, making polish cake and making colourful Wycinanki art work like the one shown above.

Week 2 Italy 27th Feb – 3rd March (MUFTI WEEK).

We will be making pizza faces to take home, as well as making pasta collages of the map of Italy. It's also Mufti Week this week, to coincide with world book day, fancy dress or own clothes.

Week 3 England 6th – 10th March.

This week we will be talking about the pearly kings and queens, we will be listening to some cockney rhymes and learning a dance.

Week 4 Spain 13th – 17th March.

We will making fans and learning a Spanish dance and a new welcome song, as well as counting in Spanish.

Week 5 Holland 20th – 24th March.

This week we will be making a windmill, learning a song and making something special for all the mummies.

Week 6 Bringing it altogether 27th – 31st March.

We will be bringing it all together this week, rehearsing for our Carnival, and mounting and framing artwork to sell at our gallery on the day.

Don't forget to put Friday 31st March in your diary's this is when we will showcase the children's carnival artwork and hold our performance.

At the end of term we will be losing two member of staff Emma Newman and Michelle Bryce, we wish them well in their new adventures. We will be advertising for the posts shortly, to ensure we have two replacement staff members in place for the start of the summer term 2017.
